“ My aunt Debi, where do I begin? I've got an entire lifetime of memories with you and it's so unfair that we can't make more. You could make me laugh like crazy, mad as hell, and drive me nuts at times, but I loved all of it. Knowing your with mom Jimbo, Jayme, Phil, Gig and countless others while no longer in pain is comforting but do you know that life changed forever when we lost you? The 3 weeks you were at methodist downtown and I came to see you everyday were priceless to me and I'm so glad we got that time together. I hope you know how very much I love you and how badly I miss you already. I hope you're flying high and resting in peace. Come visit when you can so I know you're alright. You've been more like a 2nd mom than an aunt so thank you for being such a huge part of my life!! RIP
