“ Last week we were talking about all of the good times we had. Camping in tents made of quilts and refrigerator boxes, riding horses and bicycles on long summer days. We talked about plans for the future and the days to come. The good die young. Jeannie was a good, sister, mother, wife, grandmother and friend. I will miss her dearly.

“ Our whole family loved Jeannie. We came to know and love her kindness, dedication, and love for God through her work at New Hope Community. She was (and is) an outstanding human being, because I believe Jeannie lives on with the Jesus she loved. I count her as a genuine friend who I could always depend on. She was faithful to her work and the kids loved her because she genuinely loved them and knew how to show it in her quiet, gentle way. She will be missed by all those who love her until we meet again.

“ I remember one afternoon a girl showed her her report card and declared that her brother's was worse because "Boys are stupid." Jeannie said, "That's not true," and went on to explain how intelligent her husband is. The little girl's jaw dropped. I think it was maybe the first time she ever saw anyone respect a male. It was exactly what she needed. Wonderful.

“ Jeannie and I had reconnected as cousins after many years. We talked almost every day. I had talked to her twice on that terrible day. Making plans for me to get down to Osky this week to visit. Now my visit is for something no one saw coming. My heart aches and mind still can't believe this. To Kenny, Nathan, Aharon, Dan, Kevin, Shelley, Paul, Dee and their families: As I see Jeannie now, she has visited Alice and is now riding a beautiful horse across a field of flowers. I shall forever miss her as you will too. Let a wonderful memory make you smile between the tears. One day we will hug her again. Love you and miss you, Beannie!

“ I couldn't begin to write one memory with Jeannie all I can say is my heart won't be the same without her she was the best older sister a kid could ever grow up having rip sister I will miss you so much

Paul Leonard Baby Brother - December 17, 2021 at 03:00 AM

“ She was my baby sister and we competed about everything all our lives. When toddlers, jumping on the bed, I bounced her off and broke her collarbone. When we moved to the farm, it was about the worth of having horses. When Shelly and Dee and Paul came along, it was about how to get out of baby-sitting. Then who was the best driver. Then who was the best student. And on and on and on. But time goes on and you grow up, your priorities change, you get your own family, and realize how stupid all those things once were, and how important just being a family is. I'm missing her so much, and when we meet again, WE'RE GOING TO FINISH OUR GAME ONCE AND FOR ALL, because I think the score was tied.

“ I have many memories of Jeannie. She was one of my best friends, even though we hadn't been in touch much in the last several years. In our younger days, we had many "adventures" . Putting our failed bagels all over town one late night in Pleasantville. Attempting to go camping over the 4th of July, deciding to take a late night hike, and having a huge rainstorm hit....drenching inside our tent and everything in it. We ended up sleeping in "Stanly", her blue nova. I could go on and on..... I loved her like a sister, and will miss her terribly. My prayers to her family, I know she was often the "Rock" for her siblings growing up.
